Description

Pocket watch from the prestigious Vacheron & Constantin manufacture, circa 1908. Vacheron Constantin is one of the oldest and most renowned the world's oldest continuously producing since its foundation. The House was founded on September 17, 1755 in the Geneva district of Saint-Gervais by the watchmaker Jean-BaptisteMarc Vacheron (1731-1805). Initially, the watchmaking workshop was composed of Jean-Marc and an apprentice. In 1785, the founder's sons, Louis André and Abraham Vacheron, took over the company. The watch dynasty of his son Louis André ends at the beginning of the 1930s, and the management of the company passed to Abraham, sole heir. During the years of his administration, the House passed in 1810 to his son Jacques Barthélémi
