1928.During the Second World War, he He took refuge in Corsica in Saint Florent, where he joined the Resistance under the name of "Brutus". He was arrested and imprisoned in Italy in 1943. At the end of the war in 1948, he was naturalized French for acts of resistance. Arriving in St Tropez in 1930, he married a young woman from Toulon in 1947 and they made their house a sort of phalanstery. A much-loved figure in the village, he was close to Robert Baudinière. Mosaics would become his main means of expression from the 1950s. He received several commissions for schools in Paris, Saint Lô, but also at the National Museum of Rhodesia, now Zimbabwe, in Salisbury. He will collaborate with Raymond SUBE in the creation of furniture. His painting, initially figurative, close to the Fauves, is very inspired by the landscapes of Saint Tropez, but his meeting with Albert GLEIZES definitively orients him towards an art closer to cubism and abstraction. He died in 1961 in Saint Tropez where he is buried. An exhibition was held in Saint Tropez in 2022 where he was honored. A large painting has just sold in Budapest for more than 20,000 euros. The Galerie Guardia du Castellet is specialized and permanently presents his works. Sold with certificate of authenticity. Free shipping for the European Union. 280 EURuros for International.
