Description

PAIR OF ALGERIAN SPURS (CHÂBIR)-
Wrought iron with long slanted stems, rectangular strap loops and round then slanted branches with applied silver inserts, chiseled and worked in repoussé with foliate scroll motifs. Two coral cabochons enliven the heels on each of them. ABE condition with traces of use and usage.- The spiked spurs that were used in most of the Islamic world evolved directly from examples from late Antiquity. This pair of spurs comes from North Africa, Algiers or Morocco, from the end of the 19th century, richly inlaid with silver.- This item is for immediate purchase, payable by Paypal, we also accept bank transfer or French check.- We refuse sales by telephone, the sale will only be made by Email or request via the Proantic messaging system.- We ensure
