

Sugar Hammer Axe

1 200 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 37cm

Description

In the 18th century, sugar loaves were produced. These loaves had to be broken and crushed with a hammer, so that small pieces of sugar could be used in drinks or other sweetening ingredients. This object was placed on a base by us. The total height of the object placed on its base is 42.5 cm.

Dealer

Jacob Norden Fine Antiques

Musical instruments

Tel : 0032477349513

Waterloo 50703