Description

Decorated with flowers in a bouquet, these rural chairs have a scalloped edge and are assembled into the seat using a clever system of wooden keys, no screws or nails, the legs are conical and faceted, divergent to ensure good stability and fitted into the underside of the seat. Blue-grey polychrome background with a beautiful patina. Ideal for a charming decor, can also be used as a bedside table. This type of chair is found in the Swiss and Austrian mountains and in Alsace.
