Description

Pharmacy

mortar. Bronze. Spain, 1816.

A mortar with a flared mouth, decorated with ribs derived from pillars and a band in the upper area with an inscription (I am Don Juan Antonio Martínez, apothecary in Nabal moral de Pusa / Year 1816); the handles have been lost. Naval moral de Pusa is a municipality in Toledo that was united in the 19th century with Naval moral de Toledo, giving rise to Los Naval morales. The decoration of the piece follows the usual for this type of mortar from prominent pharmacies.
