Description
-------------

Elegant

pair of small chests of drawers in solid walnut, carved and veneered, with lemon wood fillets. The chests of drawers have three ergonomic drawers ideal for storing objects, with fir interiors and which can be opened using lost-wax cast bronze knobs. The feet are bracket-shaped, while the front is decorated with geometric motif fillets that enrich the appearance and give it elegance.

This pair of chests of drawers, thanks to their taste and class, is able to furnish any room with refinement, whether a bedroom or a living room.

Manufactured in central Italy in the Louis XIV period, early 18th century.
