

Set Of 12 French Chairs, Late 19th Century, Carved Fruitwood And Ori Upholstery

2 349 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Solid wood

Description

Dimensions: 112 x 50 x 45 cmAn extraordinary set of 12 French dining chairs, manufactured in the late 19th century, crafted from high-quality fruitwood and sumptuously hand-carved, reflecting the mastery of French cabinetmakers of the period. Each chair features a unique ornamental richness, with an openwork back and detailed carved vegetal and floral motifs, evoking the aesthetic of the Louis XV or Napoleon III style, characterized by curved lines, elegance and refinement. The elegantly curved (cabriole) legs and crossbars blend harmoniously into the ensemble, providing stability and distinction. The seats and backs are padded, offering comfort without sacrificing sumptuousness. The upholstery (possibly original or faithfully restored) maintains consistency with the classic

Dealer

Florin Antiques

Meubles et Objets d'art du XVIII^e et XIX^e siècle

Tel : 0034 671 362 406

Mobile : 0034 671 362 406

PASEO RECOLETOS 31

Madrid 28004

design of the furniture. This set is an exceptional piece, both for its number (12 units) and for the homogeneity and quality of its carving and preservation. Ideal for large dining rooms or for those looking to incorporate an element of historical distinction into their interior design.

Excellent condition