

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Dcw (dining Chair Wood) Chair By Charles Eames Old Edition Herman Miller

1 400 EUR

Signature : Charles Eames herman Miller

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Walnut

Width : 43cm

Height : 74vm

Description

DCW (Dining Chair Wood) chairs, model created by Charles Eames in 1945. Walnut plywood structure, assembled with rubber supports ("shock mounts"). Old Herman Miller edition, 1950s. Very good condition Height 74cm Width 43cm

Herman Miller label under the seat EAMES chairs from the "Moulded Plywood" series In 1945

Charles Eames, in collaboration with Eero Saarinen and Ray Eames, created the first LCW (Lounge Chair Wood) plywood chair which was exhibited at the MOMA in New York and manufactured by the Evans firm from 1946 to 1949. This factory was then taken over by Herman Miller from 1949 to 1957 which created other models such as the DCW (Dining Chair Wood) chair, and 2 other versions with metal legs, the LCM (Lounge Chair Metal) chair and

Dealer

Cornershop Design

20th Century Design

Tel : 0622750609

Mobile : +33 (0) 622750609

Paris 75004

the DCM (Dining Chair Metal) chair. These chairs, now reissued by Vitra, are design icons highly sought after by collectors. Bibliography: "Modern Furniture Classics" by Charlotte and Peter Fiell, Thames and Hudson, page 41 and "1000 Chairs" by the same authors, Taschen, page 196.