Description
-------------

A pair of imposing paintings depicting three cranes at the water's edge. The images of the birds are depicted in a naturalistic manner, contrasting with the schematically depicted water and the background made of gold flakes. Japan, Showa era (1926-1989). Size of one painting: 90 x 59.5 cm. Very good condition. Framed (with slight signs of use) with glass. Delivery to be agreed. I will issue a certificate of authenticity upon request.
