Description

Very beautiful and unique gilt bronze French cage chandelier from the Louis XV period. With 6 candle arms, 3 between arms and 3 cage arms. On the cage arms and between arms there are poignards. The cage arms are decorated with large crystal stars and flower rosettes. The central stem is covered with several beautiful faceted decorative vases. All scrolled arms has Greek numbers who are corresponding with the central plate- 'Entablement'. This is characteristic for the 18th century. The chandelier is richly festooned with stars, jasminds, faceted drops and pendants 'Cristal de Bohême'- some of the crystals has solarized. Solarised glass came by 'Cristal de Bohême' till 1750 very often, after that has becoming less. Till 1770 the 'Cristal de Bohême' has a yellow or amethyst coloured
