Description

Important dresser, presentation sideboard, the upper part in a gendarme's hat, glazed with small wood, the lower doors carved among other decorations, of angels blowing the spirit, framing a reserve carved with initials signifying that this piece of furniture is very likely a wedding piece. The locks were replaced during an old restoration: grafts on the feet. Good condition despite these corrections. Regency form long in vogue in our regions and from the Louis XV period. Oak. Flanders. Northern France. Louis XV period. Second half of the eighteenth century.
