Description

Signed: Ionel IOANID, dated 1920 and located Paris Profile of a young woman with red hair and pink blouse 58.5cm x 44cm on view Edge of the pastel visible, traces of wetness (top right) Ionel Ioanid (1882-1952) was born and died in Bucharest. He studied at the National School of Fine Arts in Bucharest and is said to have been a student at the prestigious School of Painting and Sculpture at the Julian Academy in Paris. In addition to being a painter, he was a distinguished acrobat who received gold in circus competitions. He was a member of the idealist society Cenac alongside Brancusi, Séverin, Paciurea.... He does not have a huge reputation - except for certain works - but his profile is particularly beautiful, very close to the symbolist painters (pastellists) of this period, including Lucien
