Description

Elegant three-piece set consisting of a chest of drawers and two nightstands, crafted in Vicenza in the very early 19th century, during the Empire period. These pieces stand out for the refined use of so-called "palm wood" - a cabinetmaking technique typical of the Vicenza area and inspired by French craftsmanship - combined with cherrywood. This mix of materials gives the ensemble a surprisingly modern feel for its time. The chest features a clean and elegant structure, with a slightly convex central front and high sabre legs (27 cm), subtly tapered with a hint of fluting. It includes four drawers: two smaller upper ones and two larger lower ones. The nightstands reflect the same design language, each with a drawer and a door. Dimensions: Chest: Width 123 cm, Depth 54 cm, Height 94
