

Sword - Sharp & Short - Royal Manufacture Of Alsace - 1731-1781 - Louis XV° - XVIII°

700 EUR

Signature : Manufacture Royale d'Alsace 1731- 1792 -

Création de la Manufacture par Louis XV en 1731-

Period : 18th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Metal

Length : 64 cm -- lame : 51 cm

Description

Strong and short sword from the Royal Manufacture of Alsace, created in 1731 by LOUIS XV and transformed in 1781 by LOUIS XVI into the Klingental Manufacture. XVIII°. Metal mount and filigree fuse (restored). Simple joint arc and curved quillon ends. Small shell engraved on both sides with a helmeted soldier in medallion on bundles of weapons and flags. Flat blade with flat back on ricasso of 12.5 cm then with 2 6-sided edges. Ricasso engraved on both sides with a text, with Royal manufacture of Alsace and a rearing deer. Length: 64 cm Length of blade: 51 cm Length of ricasso: 12.5 cm Width at ricasso: 3 cm Good condition of conservation and use, in its own juice and patina, see details on the photos. Free shipping for France International shipping, price on request depending on the area

Dealer

Le Lys et l'Epée

Art premier, Memento Mori, Judaica, Maçonnique, Militaria, Bijoux, Mode

Tonnay-Charente 17430

of the country Visit my other objects by consulting my gallery and our site:

<https://www.IrisAntik.com>