Description

Experience the dynamic charm of Paris in this striking mid-century oil on canvas, showcasing the iconic Sacré-Coeur Basilica beyond a lively urban street. The artist employs a skillful use of the palette knife, building rich layers of texture and movement in an expressive Impressionist style. Cool greys and blues meet warm highlights to depict architecture, figures, and street life with both atmosphere and energy. Though signed in the lower right, the artist remains unidentified. Housed in an elegant dark wood frame with gold trim, this work is ideal for collectors, interior designers, or art lovers seeking a bold and timeless European cityscape. Details:
