Description

Napoleon III sideboard in rosewood, French manufacture, circa 1860, richly inlaid in boxwood, with wooden mouldings covered in brass (a particular workmanship that they used to do in 1800), the cabinet is also internally in rosewood and has 2 shelves, the top is in marble. Very interesting also for its dimensions: width 80 cm, depth 39 cm, height 112 cm The cabinet has been restored in our laboratory and has returned to its initial splendor
