Description

Refined dresser/sideboard in walnut laced wood with an essential line, a representative example of Giovanni Michelucci's design from the seventies. The piece of furniture called Torbecchia was produced by Poltronova. It stands out for its pure geometric shapes and the absence of handles, replaced by circular holes and horizontal recesses engraved directly into the surfaces of the drawers and doors, which recall the minimalist and functional aesthetic. The front is divided into two small side doors and three central drawers. Dimensions: 128cm x 58cm with a height of 98cm.
