Description

Large baluster vase in earthenware treated with electroplating with bronze patina, original medal patina, in very good condition, from the Five-Lille factory. The interior earthenware is enameled cobalt blue and is covered on the outside, by electroplating, with a layer of copper with a bronze medal patina. The Art Nouveau style decoration is made up of different parts of the chestnut tree, leaves, shells, etc. This large vase, more than a hundred years old, Art Nouveau, is in excellent condition and has kept its original patina. It is one of the creations of Antoine Gustave DE BRUYN (1838-1916), descendant of a long line of earthenware potters, who settled in Five-Lille and created there, with the help of his entire family, an earthenware factory. The famous Five-Lille factory prospered
