Description

Joseph Bertin - Milan - 19th century ebony desk Magnificent ebony desk by the cabinetmaker Joseph Bertin, dating from the 19th century, bearing the signature and stamp of the manufacturer. This desk has been completely restored, after meticulous work and according to the rules of the art. This type of desk is difficult to find on the world antiques market, as it is very difficult to find signed examples like this one. Its price is difficult to quantify, but it could reach EUR25,000 at a major international auction. It is a piece to invest in due to its rarity and artistic value. H: 145 cm 107 cm x 50 cm
