Description

Sorry, no Export airmail for this lot..Interesting set of large tube jars, from blown glass, resting on their flared foot, (sealed with cork stoppers), each bearing various inscriptions of European Chambers of Commerce for arbitration of agreed quality of imported goods, mainly spices as far as our lot is concerned. This labeling, neat, was done with a stencil on a white background with a gold border, of course, a little wear. 7 Jars in all, one of which has a chip under foot. Beautiful glassware, second half of the 19th century, beautiful set, good dimensions: 35.5cm x 12cm, each empty jar: approximately 1kg Good condition, normal and limited wear. This lot is for immediate purchase, payable by credit card or paypal. - eclectic - antique dealers since 1970, Siret: FR 24.430113233. Invoice and Certificate
