

Very Large Family Tree - De May Family - Around 1780 - Oise

350 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Paper

Width : 98

Height : 67

Description

Very large family tree of the de May family (Le Déluge, Oise) Family tree created for Jean-Baptiste de May, bodyguard of King Louis XV and then Louis XVI. The tree dates back to the end of the 16th century with Jacques de May de Savary, the first of the name to be in France, who came from Italy. The whole family is lord of Le Déluge in the Oise. The document has been preserved folded, it has some tears and some losses but nothing that prevents reading. See the photos. Brown and red inks. Created around 1780 (the last date is August 1779 with the birth of one of his sons). 98cm wide by 67cm high.

Dealer

Wulfila Antiquités

Haute époque - Archéologie - Curiosités

Tel : 06 23 13 04 02

5 rue de l'Hôtel de Ville

Réalmont 81120