Description

Antique Painting, Landscape painting, scenery painting which represents the "Vallée de la Corrèze" in the New Aquitaine region of France. Ancient paintings with river with an infinite horizon, places that the painter loved to paint and that convey tranquillity and peace. The work is signed Didier Pouget, a French landscape painter, who loved to paint outdoors and especially southern France. William Didier Pouget (1864-1959) was born in Toulouse and began his career as an artist in 1886 when he participated in the "Salon de Paris". He studied at the "Des Beaux-Arts" school in Toulouse and then at the "Académie de Paris", considered close to the Impressionist painters. He becomes a member of the "Société Des Artistes Français", knows and associates with many important artists including Jean Baptiste Corot. His river landscapes are rich in poetry and the painter usually prefers to capture the light of sunset or sunrise. He paints the figure of the tree in a dark and decisive color in contrast with the clear light of the sky. Since 1903 Didier-Pouget exhibits in the United States where he is very much appreciated. Many works by this important artist are exhibited in the many museums. The oil painting is adorned with a beautiful gilded frame in pure gold leaf from the same epoch as the painting. The frame and antique canvas have been carefully and professionally restored. www.bisgart.com Collezione Bisgart
