Description

Lithograph depicting three hybrid female figures, halfway between mythological creatures and theatrical fashion silhouettes. Leonor Fini's strange and sensual universe is fully expressed here: androgynous silhouettes, tense poses, sculptural heels, and extravagant hairstyles. The bodies, subtly eroticized and powerful, are both fragile and sovereign, in a staging evoking initiation or ritual. This work was produced in an edition of 150 copies, numbered 40/150 in the lower left corner and signed by the artist in the lower right corner. Leonor Fini (1907-1996), an artist of Italian-Argentine origin, is one of the major figures of Surrealism, although she always claimed her independence from the movement. A painter, illustrator, scenographer, and writer, she explored themes related to the sacred feminine,
