

Large Victorian 16-pointed Star Diamond Brooch In 18k Yellow Gold, Antique Celestial Brooch

3 580 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Gold

Description

Victorian diamond star brooch in 18 karat gold. This large star-shaped brooch is a celestial jewel with 16 points. Eight are set with rose-cut diamonds, the other eight are in smooth gold. In the center is an old-cut diamond weighing 0.55 carats. This motif with multiple tapered rays, sometimes called the "Star of Bethlehem" or "Comet Star," is typical of late Victorian or Napoleon III jewelry. Brooch made circa 1870-1890. Owl hallmark (posterior) Height: 5 cm - Width: 5 cm - Thickness: 9 mm Estimated total diamond weight: 1.04 carat Condition: Fine scratches from use, natural inclusion in the diamond Weight: 12.40 gr

Dealer

Maison Mohs

Antique & Vintage jewelry

- sur rendez-vous -

Paris 75004