Description

ANDERSEN (Hans-Christian) - Danish Tales.
Paris, Librairie Garnier Frères, 1929; quarto, 425 pp., full red cloth binding, printed front cover.
Andersen was an admirer of ETA Hoffmann, a consummate man of letters. He published both plays and novels, but his success will be recognized in his children's stories. Andersen had many financial problems because Denmark had no international copyright agreement. Illustrations by Yan' Dargent. Very good condition.
