Description

Empty pocket...key holder...or card holder...whatever the use of this souvenir in spelter...dated, signed and named in superb condition. A Mursi woman from Chad or Makonde from Tanzania is represented with a very elaborate ceremonial headdress. Sculpture by Mr. Leduc, created in 1928. Exceptional witness to the customs of our grandparents. Rare testimony of the humiliations and suffering that were inflicted on poor people who had the nerve to be born elsewhere and different. Offer not to be missed because owning an object that is rare and so full of history is not to be refused.
