Description

LA BANY Maurice (1880-1960) "The Villa Kérylos in Beaulieu-sur-Mer" Oil on canvas, Signed lower left, Beautiful work, in soft colors, by the Nice painter Maurice La Bany which represents a view of the villa Kérylos on the Pointe des Fourmis in Beaulieu-sur-Mer. Théodore Reinach chose the rocky point of the Baie des Fourmis in Beaulieu-sur-Mer, to build his luxurious vacation home: the Villa Kérylos. This villa, built between 1902 and 1908 by the architect Emmanuel Pontremoli, is none other than the reconstruction of a luxurious palace on the island of Delos in Greece. Originally from Nice, Maurice La Bany was a student of Léon Bonnat at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris. He mainly painted landscapes of the Côte d'Azur, including Nice and Saint-Tropez. A painter,
