

Spanish Dagger

690 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Other

Length : 32,6

Description

Very beautiful Spanish dagger with a blade with a flat central face and two edges. Metal guard with two twisted quillons ending in a ball. Handle composed of two nickel silver elements decorated with lines enclosing a central part in fluted bone. Pommel in metal pellet revealing the rivet. Blue velvet sheath today revealing only the weft of the fabric. Nickel silver chape and rivet. Spain. 19th century. Very good condition. Total length with sheath 35 cmTotal length of the dagger 32.6 cmBlade length 21.5 cmHandle length 10.3 cm

Dealer

Intérieurs Singuliers

Bronzes, objets de collection, curiosités, design.

Mobile : 0687782236

126 rue de talant

Dijon 21000