Description

This exquisite mid-19th century Italian antique chest of drawers exemplifies timeless craftsmanship and elegant design. Made from solid walnut, it offers a robust and durable structure, complemented by a light-toned finish that highlights the stunning grain of the wood, creating a warm and inviting aesthetic suitable for both classic and contemporary interiors.

Originating from the Louis Philippe period, the piece features a refined yet simple design that harmonizes with various decor styles.

Professionally restored with a conservative approach, the restoration maintains the chest's authentic charm and natural signs of age, enhancing its historical character. The finish accentuates the walnut's beautiful grain, adding a distinctive visual appeal. Functionality is
