Description

Interesting armorial signet ring, in solid silver from the 19th century, in the style of the 17th century. The coat of arms is surmounted by a ducal crown and flanked by two rearing horses. The decoration of the arms is a little worn because the ring was worn for a long time, but the coat of arms is clearly legible. Through use, the silver has taken on an irregular skin which gives this jewel a particular charm. Inner diameter of the ring: 1.8 cm, perfect for a small hand.
