Description

Its finely carved decoration is adorned with hunting motifs, such as animals in the lower center: rabbits, poultry, and other birds. A quiver and bow are held behind them, and a net hangs above them. In the upper section are arrows forming a cross, with a rifle and a sheathed sword crossing four other arrows. The spherical dial sits like a coat of arms surrounded by a frieze of tori and adorned on both sides with branches of oak leaves with acorns. It is surmounted by a beautiful, finely crafted bouquet of flowers in high relief and a large, three-loop bow. The dial, adorned with a compass rose in its center, indicates the time measurements--from fine weather to storms. It is signed in the lower part "par Frigez faubg st ant. Près la cour st Louis," indicating a Parisian work from the famous
