Description

Julio Díaz (Spain, 19th century) Dimensions: 34 x 27 cm (unframed), 16 x 9 cm (visible) Interesting oil painting on panel signed by the Spanish painter Julio Díaz, produced in the 19th century, entitled "The Watering Place". The scene, in the costumbrista style, depicts a moment of rural life with great sensitivity and attention to detail. The loose but precise brushwork, together with a warm, earthy palette, suggests an atmosphere of tranquility and everyday life. The treatment of natural light reinforces the sense of realism and highlights the textures of the earth, water and figures. A small work, ideal for collectors of 19th-century Spanish painting or those interested in genre painting with rural themes. Good overall condition. Signed at the bottom.
