Description

Dimensions: 50 x 45 cm (frame), 34 x 29 cm (view)Interesting religious painting made in oil on canvas in the 18th century, representative of the devotional iconography of the time. The work depicts a sacred scene (perhaps a Virgin, a saint or a biblical scene, subject to visual confirmation), worked with a sober palette and academic technique.It is framed in an antique period frame, possibly original, in carved and gilded wood, which reinforces its historical character.Representative work of 18th century European sacred art, ideal for both collectors and lovers of ancient religious painting.San Carlos Borromeo, arzobispo de Milán (1538-1584)
