

Small Pre-columbian Figurine - Ritual Stone Amulet

375 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Stone

Description

Period: Pre-Columbian culture (possibly Andes or Mesoamerica)Material: Carved stoneDimensions: 4 x 2 x 2 cmSmall anthropomorphic or zoomorphic figure, hand-carved in stone, from the pre-Columbian ritual sphere. These figures were commonly used as sacred amulets, offerings, or ceremonial elements related to fertility, earth, or ancestor worship. Its small size suggests personal or portable use, perhaps carried as spiritual protection or as a channel of communication with the divine during shamanic or agricultural rituals. The surface shows signs of wear consistent with its age and use. Condition: Good, with patina and erosion marks typical of the passage of time.
