Description

Fritz Bermann Vienna Bronze Little Cat on a Tray with a Piece of Cake PER25BZV001A small bronze, approximately 6 cm highIn good conditionPainted bronzeMathias Bermann founded the company in 1850 in Hernals near Vienna. He began by producing pipe fittings, then turned to bronze animal figures. At the 1873 World's Fair, he received a diploma of recognition for his products. When Fritz Bermann, a graduate of the Vienna School of Applied Arts, took over the company in 1927, he had countless models made according to his own designs in collaboration with Viennese sculptors and modelers. During the Second World War, the models survived intact in the basement of the house, which was completely destroyed. After the reconstruction, production continued ... National
