150 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Earthenware

Diameter : 21,5 cm

Description

A set of twelve openwork earthenware dessert plates from the Saint-Clément factory, a French production from the second half of the 20th century. Each plate features a hand-painted central decoration depicting floral or entomological compositions, with an openwork edge punctuated by a magenta-pink border. This type of tableware, characteristic of the French earthenware tradition, was appreciated for its rustic and decorative style. Unsigned work, typical of the fancy productions widely distributed at the time for export or regional sale.
