Description

Deep round enameled porcelain plate with a lake landscape decoration in the basin. Famille rose. Dimensions : D : 22.4 cm H : 4 cm Firing cracks visible on the back Introduced in the 18th century, famille rose porcelains have polychrome decorations in which pink tones dominate. The decoration is applied overglaze, that is to say after a first firing of the porcelain covered with a transparent enamel. This is a Western classification of Qing dynasty porcelain, known in Chinese by different terms: fencai, ruancai, yangcai and falangcai.
