Description

Lot of 5 Roemer glasses "Rhine glass"
Netherlands in the style of the 17th century
Blown glass wine glasses
Stem decorated with bramble knots
Ribbed glass thread under the chalice with flared foot
The "brambles" were useful at the time to serve as a grip to prevent the glass from falling while fingers were greasy during meals
The knots were impressed by a terracotta stamp
The foot with circular glass threads is applied to a wooden spool and pushes inwards
Four glasses are in excellent condition, a chip on the neck of the fifth.
Dimensions 9 x 8 x 8 cm
