Description

Provençal chest of drawers opening with three drawers on the front. It can be noted that all the cartouches which decorate these three drawers are all different, proof of the fantasy and technical mastery of the cabinetmaker who made this piece of furniture. Lower crosspiece molded and carved in openwork. Feet ending in animal hooves. Curved sides with molded panels. Top of fretworked wood and molded in Corbin beak. Beautiful rocaïlle bronze fittings. Walnut wood with a very beautiful patina. Louis XV period, 18th century. Furniture in very good condition.
