Description

Very original oil on cardboard measuring 37cm x52cm plus orientalist frame 57cm x 72cm representing two bouquets on an oriental carpet signed top left Alf. Dabat Alfred DABAT was one of the most original painters among those born in Algeria in the second half of the 19th century. An innovator endowed more than any other with the "sense of pictorial mystery" was one of the most beautiful painters of Algeria. He was a student of Benjamin Constant and Jean Paul Laurens. The rich harmonies of his colors highlight the shimmering fabrics of his country. An increasingly sought-after artist, free shipping worldwide.
