Description

Charming traditional Japanese scene, hand-painted on silk, depicting a mother in a kimono holding a red lantern, accompanied by her child. The refinement of the floral motifs, the fineness of the lines and the softness of the composition make it a decorative work imbued with poetry. The whole is framed under glass in a natural wood frame. Signature and red seal of the artist visible at the bottom left. Period: circa mid-20th century Technique: painting on silk Origin: Japan Dimensions: 40x48 cm Condition: good general condition
