Description

Evoking the warmth of rural life and the brilliance of Mediterranean light, this original oil painting by Ramon Trulls Pons (b. 1921) presents a striking composition of haystacks set against an expansive sky. Rich, golden earth tones flow through the foreground, while pastel clouds dance above a distant village, rendered in expressive brushwork and atmospheric perspective. The balance of form and color demonstrates Pons' mastery of Impressionist technique, capturing not just a scene but a sensory moment in time. Painted on canvas and signed in the lower right, this piece is housed in an ornate, period-style gilt frame that enhances its rustic charm. The reverse bears a stamp from "V. Piera" of Barcelona, linking the work to the Catalan region and adding provenance interest. With its
