Description

Here is a beautiful, lively and "very spirited" scene from Velay that André Jacquemin delivers to us here with "The poultry pluckers in Polignac". Numbered 7 / 50, titled and signed André Jacquemin at the bottom of the plate in pencil by the artist. André Jacquemin is referenced in Bénézit. He shared his life between the Vosges and Velay. His works are featured in several French and foreign museums and many illustrated books pay tribute to him, including one with an ink illustration of the Château de Polignac. Dimensions: View: 24 cm x 25 cm Plate 29 cm x 38.5 cm With the frame 32 cm x 42 cm Very good condition. Small head print and small number, perfectly inked, without any defects. Please note that I respond to any request about my objects. If you don't receive a response
