

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Giovanni Crivelli Known As Il Crivellino; Milan - Parma 1760, Hunting Scene, Oil On Canvas

12 500 EUR

Signature : Giovanni Crivelli il Crivellino

Period : 18th century

Condition : A restaurer

Material : Oil painting

Width : 115

Height : 109

Description

Description Giovanni Crivelli known as il Crivellino Hunting Scene Oil on canvas in 42,91x45,28 The painting depicts a hunting dog beside a bountiful array of game, including ducks, pheasants, a heron, and other birds. The artwork emphasizes the richness of the prey, the muscular tension of the dog, and the naturalistic rendering of the lifeless bodies. The scene is dynamic, filled with dramatic contrasts of light and shadow, and features a theatrical yet decorative composition, characteristic of 18th-century painting. Hunting still lifes were highly popular in the Flemish region, and Crivelli adopts their theatrical arrangement and meticulous attention to naturalistic detail. His brushstrokes are visible and assertive, with strong use of chiaroscuro and a keen focus on the

Dealer

Coradi Rare Finds

A Selection of Rare and Exclusive Artworks and Antiques

Mobile : 3336571323

Via delle Grazie 19

Brescia 25122

textures and feathers. Giovanni Crivelli was active in the first half of the 18th century, mainly in Milan and Parma. He was known for his hunting scenes and still lifes with animals, often commissioned by noble courts. The scene not only reflects an interest in hunting but also serves as a display of aristocratic luxury and power. The painting is signed in the lower right corner. Dimensions in 42,91x45,28 Provenance Private collection Conditions Defects and restorations. Losses.