Description

Beautiful pair of small armchairs in solid walnut. The backrest is tub-shaped, embellished with a drawn amphora and ebonized wood finishes. The armrests are also unique, ending with two feral paws also in ebonized wood. The legs are truncated pyramids, with softer and more wavy lines. The seat is comfortable and covered with blue and white geometric fabric. These armchairs are able to furnish any room with class and elegance. Italian manufacture, from the Charles X period, around the first half of the 19th century (about 1820).
