Description

Roger Chapelain-Midy (1904-1992) - Oil on canvas - Still life Oil on canvas depicting a still life of a bouquet of flowers Signature lower left Roger Chapelain, known as Roger Chapelain-Midy, is a French painter, lithographer, illustrator and theatre designer. Passionate about the Renaissance, the painting of Poussin and that of the 17th century, he defended a classical tradition, made of measure, in an era which saw the great upheavals of modern painting. He produced still lifes and landscapes. In a late line of symbolism and surrealism, a whole part of his work bears the imprint of his spiritual preoccupations, materialized by the obsessive recurrence of unusual settings and objects such as checkerboard tiles, masks, mannequins and mirrors Visible at
