Description

Antique oil painting on canvas dating back to the 18th century, depicting the noble Francesco Terzaroli. This work, of refined workmanship and sober elegance, masterfully captures the essence and nobility of the subject, testifying to the portrait art of the time. On the back of the painting there is a detailed biography that enriches its history and cultural value, visible in an attached photograph.This precious portrait lends itself naturally to being placed in prestigious environments such as charming private homes or professional studios, where its presence gives a touch of class and an atmosphere of refined solemnity.If you wish, I can also help you integrate the biography or other specific details present on the back of the painting.
