Description

2 Antique Wooden Pitchers Handcrafted from solid wood with a wide, flared mouth, narrow neck and bulbous body. Based on their shape, they were probably used for storage; the carved concentric lines are decorative and functional, adding to the grip and strength. The grain and patina suggest they are quite old, with significant use and age-related wear. Diameter at the top is 23.5cm, 28.5cm and 37cm high. EUR 600 each.
