

Painted Tyrolean Chest

2 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Restauré par notre atelier

Material : Sapin

Width : 143

Height : 79

Depth : 61

Description

Painted Tyrolean Chest in Spruce Wood - Dated 1846 Wood Type: Spruce wood Period: Early 19th century (dated 1846) Origin: Tyrol Dimensions: Height: 79 cm Width: 143 cm Depth: 61 cm Description: Antique Tyrolean chest dated 1846. It features two panels with vases containing flower bouquets set against a blue background, framed by red mouldings. On the sides and in the center are painted pilasters with vegetal motifs. The inscriptions on the panels display the original owners' names, typical of Tyrolean wedding chests. The shaped base, painted with ivory-colored floral patterns, adds elegance to the piece. Beautiful original hardware in working condition, including key and lock. Restoration Information: All work is included in the price Our

Dealer

Antichità Missaglia

Antique furniture and paintings - painted furniture and mountain paintings

Tel : 0039 3475979877

Via IV Novembre 812

Padova 35020

workshop guarantees a conservative restoration for each piece, preserving its authenticity and structural integrity. Every item undergoes a thorough treatment to ensure stability and hygiene. Specifically, the restoration process includes: Structural repairs to ensure durability Deep woodworm treatment to eliminate infestations Internal cleaning and sanitation External finish with natural beeswax Internal finish with shellac (natural alcohol-based varnish) Upon request, we can customize the level of restoration and adapt internal fittings (clothes rails, shelves, etc.) to your preferences.